Virginia Falascone is a dedicated, enthusiastic animator and 2D artist, she is friendly and a hard worker that can work both in a team environment as well as using her own initiative. Motivated by her passion for animation, she never stops learning by aiming at her goals. When she's not drawing, she's looking for creative hobbies or inspiration outdoors or through the pages of books. She graduated with excellent grades and can't wait to make the leap into the world of cinema and animation
